PROPOSED BILL TO REGULATE REALTY DEALERS EXPLAINED

Members of the Maricopa county real estate board at their regular monthly dinner, held at the Grand cafe last night, held G. S. Cunningham, attorney for the organization, briefly outline a proposed bill defining real estate brokers and salesmen, providing for the regulation, supervision and licensing of those engaged in the real estate business, creating a real estate department and the office of real estate commissioner and making an appropriation for such.

Mr. Cunningham explained the bill was intended to protect those legitimately engaged in the real estate business from parasites and to protect the clients of realtors from being imposed upon. He maintained that real estate brokers, creating a real estate department and the office of real estate commissioner and making an appropriation for such.

"It is only by licensing the realtors and placing a proper supervision over their activities that the undesirable brokers and salesmen can be eliminated," was the opinion of Mr. Cunningham. The bill which he has drafted and which will be passed upon by the Maricopa county real estate board before being presented to the state legislature, makes the following provisions:

No person, firm, co-partnership or corporation may engage in the real estate business without having obtained a license.

A real estate commissioner shall be appointed by the governor as chief officer of a state real estate department. The commissioner shall have full power to regulate the issuance and revocation of licenses.

Applications for license as real estate broker or salesman shall be made to the commissioner and shall be accompanied by the recommendation of two real estate owners of the county in which the applicant resides or has his place of business. The real estate commissioner may require such other proof as he may deem advisable of the honesty, truthfulness and good reputation of any applicant for a license.

Revocation of a license may follow proof of substantial misrepresentation, false promises, a continued course of misrepresentation through agents or salesmen or acting for more than one party in a transaction without the knowledge and consent of all parties concerned.

Any person or corporation acting as real estate broker or salesman without first having obtained a license will be subject to a maximum fine of $200 or imprisonment for not more than two years or by both fine and imprisonment.

S. M. Cotten, a member of the city engineering department, briefly outlined the importance of city subdivision work. He recommended that permanent monuments be set at major subdivision points and suggested that the real estate board might work to have this done. He declared that a city should anticipate its growth by making some arrangements whereby its immediate suburbs would be laid out to conform to the general city plan of streets.

Exclusive listings and new forms for listing real estate will be the principle topics of discussion at the next meeting of the board the first Thursday in December.

STABBED WIFE, IS HELD FOR TRIAL

Henry Coleman, colored, yesterday pleaded guilty before Justice Charles DeSales Wheeler to a charge of assault with intent to commit murder and was held to answer to the superior court. He was committed to the county jail when he failed to furnish a bond of $1,000. Coleman is charged with stabbing his wife with a knife.

According to the story told by officers, Coleman went into a picture show last Monday night and saw his wife there in company with another man. He followed the couple out of the show, the officers said, and catching up with them stabbed his wife in the shoulder with his knife. Mrs. Coleman what not seriously hurt and later swore out a complaint against her husband.

Prior to the stabbing, according to the officers, Coleman called at a local justice court and asked for advice. He was told to get a lawyer and secure a divorce, as the best solution to his difficulties. The lawyer was out when Coleman called, he said after his arrest, and when he saw his wife in company with the other man he declared he took the matter into his own hands.
